

Study day on The 'Calais crisis' University of Chester

November 18th, 2015.

13.00 – 17.15

China Centre, 3rd Floor Gateway House.

86 Northgate Street

Chester CH12HT

An event organised in conjunction with ASMCF North West.

13.00 – 13.15	Welcome and Introduction	The French team at Chester
13.15-14.00	Daniel Gordon (Edge Hill)	Cooperation and Misunderstanding Among French and British Anti-Racists: the Calais Controversy of 1983
14.00-14.45	Alessandro Pratesi (Chester)	Discussing citizenship and social inclusion through the lenses of emotions and care practices
14.45-15.00	Coffee break
15.00-15.45	Sheila Walsh (Sunderland)	New 'crisis' old problems: Can we learn from a 19 th century passeur ?
15.45 – 16.30	Alison Smith (Liverpool)	Communicating the Calais crisis on film
16.30 – 17.15	Sophie Watts Amanda Crawley Jackson (Sheffield)	The longer story, the bigger picture: representing Calais in contemporary photography from France

19.00 – 20.30

An evening for the wider community dedicated to the Calais Crisis. We will address its history, its political implications and portray some of the inhabitants of the 'Jungle'.

Extracts of Philippe Loiret's award-winning film Welcome(2009) will be screened. The event is to be held in the Binks Building CBK013 (ground floor).